Module 7 : Unit testing and Angular-CLI

Project

edureka!

Electronic Voting System

1. A voting system developed with Angular Mean Stack
   a. Application which provides an end to end understanding using Node.js with Angular and MongoDB

2. A Mean Stack application basically comprises of the following three components
   a. Node.js as the server
   b. Mongo as the database
   c. Angular as the frontend

3. The project has two sections - Admin and the Users
   a. Admin
      i. Approve users for voting ii. Manage (Create, Delete) Candidates
      iii. View Results
   b. Users
      i. Register, login for Users ii. Seek Approval for Voting iii. Vote a Candidate from a list of candidates
      iv. View Results

4. The project is of basic level architecture where the project modules are managed as per concerns.